

Who have you told today?

When you tell a friend about applying with PlaceSmart, you offer encouragement.
When you tell a co-worker about PlaceSmart Agency, you offer direction.
When you tell a loved one about PlaceSmart Agency, you offer hope.

Encouragement, Direction, Hope. Each is a part of the necessity to earn income. So when you tell others about the positive experience you've had with our agency, you're helping yourself and others and that in part of Human Responsibility.

Some workers are reluctant to take the next step and get the interview. Your encouragement could be the first step towards their returning back to employment, their first job, or a new career direction.

Associate Referral Incentives

Meeting your needs and ours

Our Agency depends upon informed associates to share the PlaceSmart Agency message with others. We're counting on you to help others learn what you already know about our friendly & helpful style of business.

If we can help, we will tell them. If their needs exceed the scope of what we can offer, then we will refer them in a different direction.

We are fortunate in our business to witness each associate's realization that work could be found. You can experience the joy by referring others.

Together, we make a great team.
